

Please make note of my strong objection to any attempt to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. This is one of the few good things that government has done for us. We need more of this.